

City Center Investment B.V. (hereinafter referred to as – the “Company”) realizes (recognizes) its responsibility for environmental impact resulted from leasing out the premises of “Naberezhnaya Tower” complex and its operations and maintenance activities.

This Environmental Policy adheres to the requirements and intentions of ENKA group of companies in the sphere of environmental protection and sustainability.

The aim of the Company is to ensure sustainable development by means of mitigation and prevention of environmental impact and devastating effect, rational use of physical, energy and natural resources while maintaining balance of interests of all stakeholders.

Within this Environmental Policy City Center Investment B.V. assumes the following obligations:

- Development, implementation and ensuring functioning and continual improvement of environmental management system.
- Compliance with all applicable regulatory and statutory requirements, federal, regional and local laws regulating the Company’s activity in the sphere of environmental protection.
- Understanding the needs and expectations of stakeholders with regard to environmental management and sustainable development, and keeping them informed on all the updates.
- Identifying and evaluation of environmental aspects, development and realization of sustainability and environment protection initiatives aimed at systematic environmental impact mitigation and efficient use of physical, energy and environmental assets.
- Following and controlling the work of contracting companies providing services on the territory of “Naberezhnaya Tower” complex to comply with the existing environmental regulations, codes and requirements of the Company and involving them into environmental management.
- Using of environmentally safe and friendly materials and technologies;
- Fostering environmental awareness of all employees while encouraging and involving them in environmental initiatives and sustainable development.
- Ensuring the Company’s personnel to follow and comply with this Environmental Policy when meeting goals and objectives in the sphere of environmental protection.

City Center Investment B.V. abides by this Environmental Policy and is obliged to duly communicate it to all its employees, ensures to provide its timely update and availability for its stakeholders, assumes to allocate resources needed for its realization as well as ensuring the full compliance with the requirements of ISO 14001:2015.

General Representative
City Center Investment B.V.
M. Emre Yilmaz

14.02.2020

